HONG KONG, CHINA - Sept. 16, 2015 /CNW/ - Seaspan Corporation (NYSE:SSW) announced today that it has signed a Framework Cooperation Agreement with the Export-Import Bank of China ("CEXIM") for a total of up to $1 billion in export credit facilities. The credit facilities would be made available to Seaspan for the purchase and construction of vessels from shipyards in China within the next three years.

Gerry Wang, Chief Executive Officer, Co-Chairman and Co-Founder of Seaspan commented, "We appreciate the strong support Seaspan continues to receive from leading banks around the world. We are pleased at the prospect of further strengthening our long-standing relationship with CEXIM, which began in the early 2000's and led to our first loan agreement in 2007. With the signing of this Framework Cooperation Agreement, we expect to be able to enhance our financial flexibility and increase our access to growth capital. Consistent with our disciplined strategy, we intend to continue to pursue attractive opportunities to grow our fleet and contracted revenue stream, which currently exceeds $6 billion."
